

Fantastic newly built semi-detached house for sale in the center of Albir

It involves the construction of two semi-detached houses in a very central area of Albir, close to all the facilities and services on the avenue. Only one of these two houses is for sale. It will be distributed over two floors, with a living-dining room, an open kitchen, a gallery, four bedrooms and three bathrooms. Apart from the terraces that surround the pool area it has a covered terrace of 14 m2 on the first floor. Top quality materials will be used that the client can always modify according to their taste, as well as choose the air conditioning system, etc. The house will be oriented to the south so it will be very sunny and with beautiful views of Sierra Helada. The completion of the work will take place within one year, at the end of 2023, a unique opportunity due to the privilege of its central location.
